

SEMINAR 10

Intergenerational Learning for Sustainable Development

Thursday, 12 February 2026 15:00 - 16:30 (JST)

In this seminar, Aida Mammadova invites participants to engage in a conversation on the UNESCO-designated Biosphere Reserves (BRs) and Geoparks, and intergenerational learning through her fieldwork-based education for sustainable development (ESD) in the natural heritage sites. This seminar will provide unique relationships between intangible cultural heritage (ICH) and ESD in the UNESCO BRs, and practical ideas to safeguard ICH in local community.
